

would go along to the church and that this would be a support to them.

Pray too for the Christianity Explored course starting with a new group this month; that there would be an interest in the course and that it would be a blessing to all who attend.

West Midlands – Give thanks for wonderful opportunities to share the life changing Gospel message with so many needy men with open hearts and a real longing to change. Give thanks too that the men are giving positive feedback to their chaplains, which helps to keep the opportunities open. Please pray for Nigel as he makes bookings for Sunday services for this year.

West Yorkshire Prayer & Support Group – Give thanks that having undergone training, five of the group are now officially Chaplaincy Volunteers in HMP Wakefield. Sunday services and mid-week meetings have been attended, enabling links to be forged with several of the prisoners. Please pray that the Lord will continue to bless the group throughout 2019.

Daylight Newsletter January 2019

Over the last month it has been very encouraging to hear from some of our staff and volunteers about prisoners who professed faith some time ago that are now showing real evidence of growth and doing their best to live for the Lord.

At one of our Bible study groups we have seen a real change in some of the men who have been attending for just over a year. They have clearly grown in their understanding of Bible principles and appreciation of the power, faithfulness and grace of the Lord Jesus Christ. When they started attending many of them were very self-centred, but now we can see them encouraging and caring for each other. A number of them are now also studying the Bible on the wings together.

In another prison, James, who came in with no interest in faith at all says he now knows he came to prison to find Christ. He is currently facing a lot of difficulties and has a hearing coming up soon, but he is learning to pray about his problems and to leave them with the Lord and is able to speak to our volunteer chaplain regularly.

After hearing our volunteer preach on Luke 3:7-18 recently, James felt really helped by the message and said, "I know I am a Christian". He said he had read the passage himself before, but that day he had seen so many new things and was learning so much from it; the Word was coming alive to him. We know that this is not because of us, but because the Spirit is applying the Word to Him.

Please pray that his current difficulties will be used to draw him closer to the Lord and that he will continue to grow in grace.

Thank you for your support.
